

A-Z Things To Do

A-Z Things To Do

A

- Arts and Culture at the Ballyhugh Centre: traditional dance workshops.
- Bawnboy Community Festival: full of fun normally held in August.
- Bawnboy Workhouse: one of Irelands finest examples of workhouse structures.
- Bear Essentials: perfect family day out making your very own teddy.
- Belturbet Heritage Railway Station: historic cut stone station and railway museum on the fame narrow gauge railway line.
- Brackley Lake - one of the largest lakes in the area with a Crannog located in the centre. Perfect viewing point.
- Castle Saunderson: built in 1573 and rebuilt in the mid 19 th century beautiful trails and parkland walks.
- Cavan Burren Park: a must see megalithic playground.
- Cavan Canoe Centre: guided river trails, summer camps and boat trips.
- Cavan County Museum: features the WW1 Trench Experience and centuries of historical artefacts.
- Cavan Genealogy Centre: the perfect place to find out about your Cavan Roots.
- Cavan Walking Festival: get those boots on during May for a great annual walking festival.
- Corleggy Cheese: cheese making workshops for those who know their Blue from their Brie.
- Corneen Wind Farm Viewing Point: spectacular views and great photo opportunities.
- County Cavan Golf Club: 18 hole golf course.
- Cuilcagh Mountain Board Walk: the stairway to heaven.
- Drumlane Abbey: founded by St Colmcille 6th century.
- Geopark Festival Week: a festival spanning May and June with a full programme of activity for all.
- Jampa Ling Tibetan Buddhist Retreat: Retreat Centre located on a beautiful C19th Estate.
- Killykeen Forest Park :walk, run, swim, picnic with a background of stunning lake views.
- Kinavart Megalithic Tomb: a well preserved bronze age burial tomb.
- Marble Arch Caves Global Geopark: an underworld of awesome sites.
- Moneygashel Cashel: constructed between 500 and 1000 AD consists of a circular stone wall, 2 small stair cases and an underground souterrain.
- Neven Maguire Cookery School – take a class with celebrity chef Neven.
- ODD Gamespark: hi-octane activity for the adrenalin junkie.
- Slieve Russell Championship Golf Course: serene 18 hole course.
- St Mogue's Island: the birthplace of St Mogue contains early Christian monastic ruins. Accessed by boat.
- Taste of Cavan: festival of food normally held in August.
- The Shannon Pot: the mythical source of the might River Shannon.
- Townhall Cavan Arts Space: display exquisite local art for all to view.
- Tullydermott Falls: a picturesque waterfall on the slopes of Cuilcagh.
- World Pairs: fishing competition held in September.

Z